

Captions for photos in press kit of Miracle in a Box / a piano reborn (MIB)

Steve Willis, shop foreman at Callahan Piano, re-assembles hammers on a Steinway action.

John Korty, veteran filmmaker in the Bay Area, made Miracle in a Box over two years in the shop of Callahan Piano of Alameda.

Either caption can be used for either the vertical or horizontal shot of the crew:

John Callahan and the artisans of his shop hang tight in a grand piano case.

The crew of Callahan Piano in a moment of togetherness.

John Lithgow, distinguished on stage and screen for many years, is the narrator of Miracle in a Box / a piano reborn.

Douglas Braak and Rhys McKay lower a heavy plate back into a Steinway grand in the shop of Callahan Piano.

Douglas Braak repairs the plate of the 1927 Steinway while Steve Willis adjust hammers in the background.

Further info available at Korty Films, 415 663 9552 or kortyviz@svn.net